A blend of the Chris Wivholm Foundation and a product line focused on enhancing homes and family through meal preparation seems like a good fit! Pampered Chef products are high quality tools that help you save time, and make better food. The kitchen table is where we mark milestones, divulge dreams, bury hatchets, make deals, give thanks, plan vacations and tell jokes! It's also where children learn the lessons that families teach: manners, cooperation, communication, self-control, and

Please participate by placing on order through Thursday June 6th.
